It's That Time Again!

It's be friends with your neighborhood time again! It's that Santa Claus season that comes once a year, And gives us a reason for spreading good cheer. It's holiday time, It's caroling time... Again!

Friday, December 23rd 6:30pm
at 999 N. Madison Ave.

This year we'll gather at the home of our gracious hosts Sonja and Albert Alarr and sing Christmas carols to celebrate the season and our neighborhood friendships.

We will sing, eat, drink and be merry!

Please bring a dish to share along with your favorite drink. Hearty, non-dessert items are encouraged. (If we do it right, this will be dinner!) Nothing to bring? Don't worry! Come anyway and let the neighborhood feed you!

No need for RSVPs. Just come. See you there!

In other neighborhood news, your Neighborhood Association is up and running. The Board of Directors has met twice and several committees are really starting to cook. You'll receive a notice early in the New Year for the next neighborhood meeting. Also, disaster preparedness seminars will be held weekly in February. Look for the flyer or email with the dates and times, and plan to attend!

Happy Holidays to all!
