GET PASADENA WALKING!

Pasadena Walks! brings people from all parts of Pasadena together for one goal: a walkable city! The "walking season" will begin in February and culminate in May with a celebratory 5K walk around the Rose Bowl. Each walking group will get support, free stuff (including t-shirts) and make new friends, all while doing something great for your health. Grab your neighbors, friends and family and start an Orange Heights walking group! If you are interested, please call Sharla at (626) 831-2980 or visit www.pasadenawalks.org

NEIGHBORHOOD YARD SALE BRING YOUR STUFF!

On Saturday, February 10, Alisa and Griffin Gmelich will host a neighborhood yard sale. Any Orange Heights residents who want to sell items will be given space in the Gmelich yard at 968 North Madison. For those of you who do not want to stay for the sale, Alisa will set the price and sell your goods for you. All participants are encouraged to contribute 25% of their sales to the OHNA. Delivery of sale items can be made as early as 5:00 am but no later than 9:00 am (the rush usually begins a 5:30am). The event will be advertised and signs will be posted. All goods that remain unsold will be picked up by the Salvation Army and then the city garbage collection, unless you pick them up by 4:00 pm on Saturday. If you wish to participate please contact Alisa Gmelich at 626-345-1855. -Ed-

OHNA ONLINE DISCUSSION

Julie Paque moderates the Orange Heights online discussion group. There is no fee. To join send an email to julie@paque.com. Recipients can request to be removed from the list at any time. -Ed-

GEORGE LOEW RUNS FOR BOE

Long time Orange Heights resident and retired teacher George Loew has announced his candidacy for a seat on the PUSD Board of Education. If successful, he would be the second elected Pasadena official from Orange Heights. (Chris Holden of Jackson Street is currently a member of the City Council.) Mr. Loew has put up a website with general information on his background and views at www.geocities.com/gloew225. He is available to answer any questions you might have at (626) 818-2450. -Ed-
